Please check your remind app on days when weather is questionable as well as our social media accounts. Phone calls will no longer be made.

Dress Code

All students at Technique School of Dance must follow a dress code. This is necessary as instructors need to clearly see the dancer's movements with her/his body. This is not only to ensure they are doing the step properly, but more importantly to avoid injury. We have also issued a separate form indicating the shoes to be worn for each dance style (specific to the class and age of the child). Please be sure to have the proper shoes by the end of September. If the wrong shoes are bought you will be asked to return them and purchase the proper one for the class. (NO LACE UP SHOES).

Ballet: Any bodysuit, tights, or ankle socks. Skirts may be worn in class. Hair in a bun

Acro: Any bodysuit, crop top and dance shorts, no tights, or footless tights. Hair in a braid

Jazz, Tap, Hip Hop, Lyrical, & Musical Theatre: Dance crop top, dance shorts, bodysuit. Hair in a bun or ponytail. Hip Hop Teachers may ask for sweatpants.

Absolutely no t-shirts, sweaters, jeans, or pants are to be worn in any class. No gum, food or candy is permitted into the studios and any drinks other than water bottles. All classes require student's hair to be neatly tied back into a bun, braid, or ponytail. We do have studio appropriate clothing for sale or order.
